BROOKLYN, 10: WASHINGTON, 3. MIGORLYN, 10; WASHINGTON, 3.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The error column does not tell the total number of misplays made by the home team this afternoon, as their errors of omission were as costly as those of commission. In the fourth and fifth innings their efforts in the field were ludicrous in the extreme. King took McJames's blace at the beginning of the sixth, and did good work. McJames, however, with decent support, might have kept the visitors from scoring. The game was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of darkness, Wrigley took O'Hrien's place in the seventh. Attendance, 2,100. The score:

PROVIDENCE 4: BUFFALO, 1.

BUFFALO, Sept. 17.—The first game for the Steiners Cup between the leaders was rathers tame affair, due no doubt to the cold weather. Providence won handly, the Biscase being unable to hit Doian for more than five singles their only run being forced in by Doian's wildness in the second. With Wiss, Goodenough, and Wadsworth out of the game and with Stahl atili feeling the effects of his sickness the Buffalos wage no match for the Kastern League champions. The score: AT NEWPORT.

GREAT SHOOTING BY THE SEVENTH.

New York's Crack Regiment Makes a New Record at Creedmoor. CREEDMOON, Sept. 17.—The rifle range contests began here to-day. The shooting was for the State and brigade prizes. The Twelfth Regiment team captured the State prize, but port for duty until Saturday. Several of the backs who have been with McCormick and the Seventh won the brigade match by a score that smashes the record for similar matches in Thorne at their homes are here and practising daily. The names of the men who have reported are H. F. Benjamin, H. W. Letton, and A. R. Squire. Letton is probably the most promising the United States. In 1894 the Twelfth counted up 999. In 1895 the Georgians at Sea Girt scored 1,010. Yesterday the Seventh's team counted 1,035, and the Twelfth's score marked exactly 1,023 at both shoots. In the State match the Seventh scored 1,019.

It was great shooting, even though the ele-ments were against any remarkable perform-ance. There was a favorable wind blowing by Frank Butterworth, the full back for Yale in '93 and '94. He is in business in this city, and has taken charge of the men in the old "gym" lot, making his men punt an hour in every form of a kick. The work is varied from place and drop kicks to long and soratch punts, and the men are showing up in fair form.

A few candidates not ordered out by Capt. Murphy are at the Yale field. Among them are McFariane, substitute end; Bock, substitute tackle; Hall, substitute end, and Harnes, substitute half back. They expect to report formally next Saturday. It is expected that Butterworth will help Capt. Murphy in the coaching of the team for esveral days. Ex-Capt. Thorne is expected here next week to aid the present captain in developing the new men. smartly toward the targets, but during the morning the rain came down in torrents and stopped the whole proceedings. In the afternoon it was dull and gray, and the smoke from in many instances the marksmen's sight upon their targets. Considering that the record was broken under these disadvantages, makes the work done all the more remarkable. Both con-tests were exciting until the end, for it was not intil every man had shot that the regiments knew which were the winners of the contests. There was a third match between the regiments of the Second Hrigade. The Twenty-third won by a score of 987. A dozen men constituted a team. Hrig. Gen. Whitlock was in command. The total scores were:

The line will average 192 Twenty-third 286 Thirteenth 235 Forty-seventh 222 949 280 281 pounds, while behind the line they will average STATE MATCH. To-morrow the Adjutants' contest takes place. The winner will receive a haudsome bronze trophy offered by Major-Gen. McAlpin. On Saturday a match will be shot for a prize offered by Gov. Morton. All the regiments will contest.

catching, and punting, after which they gractise signals for half an hour, followed by a half hour's game with the scrub team. After this, led by Cant, Hughes, they take a jaunt for a mile, followed by a good rub down. Then they receive blackboard exercise for twenty minutes and are justructed in the different piays of the game. They claim to have a few new tricks with which they hope to surprise the Lafayette team.

Bome of the men who are trying for the team are: Corneli of Orange A. C., Cudgins of Columbia, and Knipe for centre; Shasfer of the Crescents, Lauscon of the Orange A. C., and Bob Acton of Harvard, guards; Hughes of the Crescents, Kafka of the New York University, Mamlok of the Elizabeths, Miller and Walker of Peckskill Millitary Academy, Fitzsimmons of Fordham, and Hughes of Fordham. On Saturday after upon they will indulge in a hard practice game with the scrub team at 145th street and Lenox avenue. No club in the country has equalled the Essex County Club, Manchester-by-the-Sea, this season in the number and original features of its competitions. A competition that, if successful, may lead to the establishment of a New England Golf Association, in affiliation with the United States Golf Association, but independent as far as the local championships are concerned, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 26, on the links of the Essex County Club. It will be a scratch medal competition, for a cup valued at $150, open to all members of New England clubs belonging to the United States Golf Association, the cup to become the absolute property of the winner. Thirty-six holes will be played; eighteen in the morning and eighteen in the afternoon.

On Tuesday, Sept. 29, there will be a competition for professional golfers attached to clubs belonging to the United States Golf Association. Prizes: $100 to first, $50, to second, $50 to third, and $20 to fourth. Thirty-six holes; medal play. Entries for both events should be made to the Golf Committee, Essex County Club, before noor of Monday, bept. 28.

Will Tucker has returned to St. Andrews from Richmond, Va., where he laid out a nine-hole course for Anton H. Therman, in Lakesids Park, the estate of Mr. Gintner. There is also a wonderful collection of plants, animals, and birds on the property; in fact, they make a horticultural and zoological gardens of some pretonsions. The hazards on the golf course include roads, creeks, and ditches, with four artificial bunkers. The full distance is 1,980 yards.

An interesting match of the week at St. Andrews was between De Lancey Nicoll and B. St. de Garmendia. They played thirty-six holes, for four goif balls a bole, and twenty on the match. De Garmendia was five up in the morning and seven up in the afternoon round, winning by twelve up. A return match may be played at Ardsley Casino.

Battle Between Pitz and Corbett.

If Fitzsimmons and Corbett really have any serious intentions of fighting, Jimmy Wakely, who was once John L. Sullivan's backer, sees a way in which these two big pugillats can come together. He says he is willing to furnish $10,mons. Wakely declares that he is not in the scheme to make money, but just to stop the fighting talk between the two men and have them settle their grievances as quickly as possible. He is willing to have forty persons witness the mill, and says he will charge $250 a ticket. Corbett was at once notified of the offer. He says that he is willing to have four with Fitz if no club comes forward witn a better incentive. Martin Julian, on behalf of Fitzsimmons, declares that he is out for the biggest money just now, and will not consider any suggestions to fight in private.

Sporting men hereabouts regard the idea of Corbett and Fitzsimmons meeting in private as a good one. They claim that if Wakely carries out the plans he has mapped out there is no reason why the contest should not be a success as an assurance of good faith. Wakely said yesterday that he would deposit the entire sum in the hands of Al Smith, the final stakeholder. It is said that four sporting men are interested in the venture with Wakely. These four, it is further stated, have aiready subscribed $2,000 each and another has made a promise of $1,000, it is size said that Dan Stuart is interested in the project. BOX TAKES THE STAKES. CRIC BEATEN BY THE SON OF OR-DER AT GRAVESEND. Indwigshafen, the Favorite, Never in It-Ruckwa and The Winner Go Back on the Talent-Miss Prim Wins a Purse-Glea-moyne and Freeton Successful Favorites. Mr. W. Showalter's two-year-old colt Box, which was shipped to Sheepshead Bay from Kentucky with a flourish of trumpets to win the Futurity, captured his first stake yesterday at Gravesend, the speedy son of Order and Pandors winning the Flatland Stakes after a long and stern chase after the lightly weighted filly Chic. Ludwigshafen, the favorite, and the other starters for the prize might as well have been in their stalls as far as the part they played in the race is concerned. Chic and Box got a running start and at the end of the first hundred yards were so far away that the rest had not the remotest chance of overtaking them. The day was dark and gloomy, with a slight shower of rain while the horses were at the post for the last race. Two odds-on favorites, Buckwa and The Winner, went by the board, but Glenmoyne and Preston saved the day for the talent.

There were nine candidates for the Flatlands

Stakes at five furlongs. Ludwigshafen was a slight favorite over Box, with Chic the most fancied of the others. Chic and Box behaved badly and finally were sent away running. Chic shot off from the field with a surprising brush of speed and she was half a dozen lengths before Box on the upper turn. The rest of the field struggled along in Indian file, with Naughty Girl a hundred yards behind the leader. Had Waller given Chic a breathing spell she could Walier given Chic a breathing spell she could not have lost, but the lad was so far ahead that he wanted to make assurance doubly sure. He accordingly went to the whip long before Martin get Box up to him. A hundred yards from the wire hox got his head an eck in front. Chic railled and cok ling the Kentucky colt was gaining at the wine feather than head quickly as any two-year-old in training. Instances, and head and the property of whipping or riding the colt unnecessary of whipping or riding the colt of the colt in the colt of the not have lost, but the lad was so far ahead that he wanted to make assurance doubly sure. He an inch, and the filly won cleverly in the very creditable time of 1:43. Muskalonge beat Argentins for third money. Clayton went on with The Winner for an extra furlong, and the colt is evidently intended for the Brookwood Stakes to-morrow.

Preston, the favorite, took the concluding race of the day after a spirited race with Ameer through the stretch. Ameer and Agitator were well played, but in the half hour delay at the post they were very fractious and destroyed their chances of victory. Tings seemed to be sore going to the post, but he could run the first part of the race.
